I will always treasure the moments we have shared on Facebook getting to know one another after all these years of being cousins and never meeting. Diane was open, honest, spoke from her heart, wonderful sense of humor (which I totally understood!) and loved her family, taking special pride in each of her children and grandchildren's accomplishments and accepted all of them for the uniqueness they represent. She, along with a couple of other cousins, have been the catalyst for uniting a lot of our family and sharing precious memories and pictures on our family facebook page. I look forward to meeting up with you in heaven, and spending an eternity laughing and enjoying your company. Until then, as trite as it may sound, rest in full peace and enjoy the reunion with our grandparents. Give my Dad and your Mom special hugs from me and let my Dad know how much I still miss him.
