“Now and Beyond”

Grieving the Loss of a Spouse

Thursdays, May 28, June 4, 11, 18, 25, & July 2
11 am – 12 pm
Owen Aftercare Office
5317 Dixie Highway

The “Now and Beyond” grief support group is limited to 8 members and meets for six weeks for an hour to address the needs and questions of those who have lost a spouse through death. Each meeting consists of presentation, discussion and support.

Weekly topics will focus on particular aspects of the grief process such as:

- Learning to Live with Loss
- The Grief Response (Allowing a Natural Response)
- The Emotional Rollercoaster of Grief
- When Everything Has Changed! (Adjusting to Role Changes)
- Taking Care of Yourself
- Memories and Meaning

Support groups are helpful when grieving a loss. They provide a relaxed atmosphere, to talk with others who have also experienced the loss of a spouse. In gathering as a group, members lend strength and encouragement to one-another as they share and understand the difficulties each other face.
