“ Gary,
So sorry for the loss of your Dad.
I'm sure you are still grieving for your Mom.
Your Dad made my fruit stand and his name is carved on the bottom.
We send hugs and prayers!

“ Gary, I will truly miss your Dad. I won't forget his color commentary on the sermons each week . . . during the sermons. When I wasn't singing in the choir and sitting just a couple pews in front of him, you clearly knew if he had an appreciation for the message of the day or not. He was a devoted man of many talents that will be truly missed by all at Ridgewood. I'll miss him and your mother always being the first ones to arrive at the Stewardship Banquet each year; they loved Ridgewood and were eager to support the church year after year.

I still have children's Koala Bear bookends that he made probably 30 years ago. The craftsmanship is perfection! They will now serve as a sweet reminder of him.

I am grateful he did not suffer long and that he is reunited with your sweet mother who was such a dear friend and my Cardinal companion. My thoughts are with you as you grieve the loss of them both. My deepest sympathy, love and prayers,
Margaret Jolly
