

A. J. Campbell

February 24, 2012

CAMPBELL, A. J., 81, of Louisville, passed away on Friday, February 24, 2012. He was born, July 2, 1930 in Corbin, KY to Edith Ellen and James Lee Campbell. A. J. was a retired employee of CSX - L & N Railroad, a Shriner, a member of Masonic Lodge #938 in Corbin and Shively Baptist Church. He was preceded in death on January 26, 2012 by his beloved wife of 63 years, Betty Joe (Parman) Campbell. Survivors include his three children, Phyllis J. Collard (Duke), James A. Campbell (Crys) and Katie E. Hardesty (J. B.); seven grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and his sisters, Jackie Ellison and Joann Slavey. Funeral services will be noon Tuesday at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Hwy., with entombment in Louisville Memorial Gardens West. Visitation will be 1 - 8 p.m. Monday.

Tribute Wall

TF

“ My family treasures the many times we spent with AJ and Betty in Florida and our visits to Louisville. They were a second set of parents to us. GOD never made two finer human beings. Our lives are much better by knowing them and we will always cherish the sit down talks we had.

Tom Koontz and Family - June 28, 2018 at 04:00 PM

DS

“ We will certainly miss those crank calls from A.J. Such as, your cows are out on the highway-or he and Betty coming by from Corbin and not finding us at home-he would always leave a calling card by placing chairs or something so we couldn't get in our door. A.J. was like a brother to Don. He loved him dearly. The family has our sympathy and love. Don and Teet

Don and Teet Stevens - June 28, 2018 at 04:00 PM