“ Al and I met during our time in the life insurance business and we became good buddies. While we had not seen each other in many years I never forgot him. To this day he was one of the nicest and most decent people I've ever known. I still think of him when the subject of bowling (he threw a " back up ball") or the Knights of Columbus comes up.

I was so sad to learn of his passing. I did not recall him being that much older than I am, he must have aged very well.

Laura was just a little girl back then and I still remember how he constantly talked about her, his love for her was plain to see.

He had a mirror in a frame at his Mom's house that was a Time Magazine cover for the "Man of the Year" issue. When he looked into the frame he was the "Man of the Year".

I hope he had a good and happy life my prayers go out for Al and for all of you that had him in your lives.
