“ So sorry to hear of my cousin, Joe's death. Although I married and moved to California a number of years ago I always remember how friendly and welcoming he was when we went to visit Kute Liquors when we came to town. We pray for God's loving comfort and strength for Joe's family during these difficult times. May his memories help fill the void. Wish we could be there in person.

“ Ann and family, Joe was a big man with a big heart, and a big personality. While he and I disagreed on some issues, we agreed on the big ones: family and friends. I enjoyed his discussions of the Civil War (he was an expert), as well as his soft touch with a pitching wedge around the greens. John and Claudine
