“ I met "Jane's Mom" back in the 70's when we would go to Louisville to visit Bill. She and the "Colonel" were the perfect couple and were always the perfect hosts. It would be years in between times but I always looked forward to seeing them and she always greeted us with a smile and a warm welcome. My condolences to the family and she will surely be missed.

“ I still remember when Will told me that his Grandmother's name was "Big Al"...I pictured this enormous , rough , women. I was amazingly surprised when I was so lucky to meet Alice Hair. She was anything but Big... petite, gorgeous white hair, loving eyes, gentle soul. But as I heard stories of Grandma Alice, and had a chance to get to know her (although I wish I was able to know her even more!) Big Al really does sum up so much of what she was...Big Heart, Big Personality, Big Legacy, and Big Amazing Mother, Wife, Daughter, Sister, Grandmother, and Great-Grandmother.
Big Al--you will be missed.
Love Always &
Very Blessed to be your Granddaughter in Marriage,
Lesa
