“ Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of Ms. Alice Goldsmith. The death of a loved one can be one of the most distressing events in one’s life, and sometimes words cannot ease the pain. However, the Bible is the best source to turn to for comfort. It is so reassuring to know that our love ones are not experiencing pain because Ecclesiastes 9:5 says “that the dead are conscious of nothing at all.” Also, Jesus confirmed this by what he said of his dead friend Lazarus at John 11:11. There he said that “Lazarus has gone to rest and I am going to awaken him from sleep.” Jesus likened death to sleep. Also, he further taught that God will resurrect our loved ones from the dead. Please take comfort in John 5: 28, 29 which states, “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.” This means that the dead will come back to life again. How comforting it is to know that we will see our loved ones again. Again, please take comfort in what God says in his word.
