“ Amanda was one of the most fun people I ever met. She was always ready with a raunchy joke or a corny prank. One of the best friends I ever had. I miss her.

“ Mandy is the only friend I met where I could actually consider her my best friend. A ear to listen to, a heart of gold, and always could find a way to lift my spirits when needed. I will miss her laughter and her easy free spirit. She was a friend to many people. We were apart for a few years but it was like we never skipped a beat when we were reunited. She was a beautiful soul on a very hard journey. As I sat with you in the hospital my heart broke more and more every day. I already miss your face my friend. You will never be forgotten. I love you and until we meet again you will forever be burned into my heart. My heart is broken 💔

“ I will never forget the day we had a cookout at my brother Johnny and my sister Vickie's house. My brother Jonny was self conscious about losing his hair and wore a baseball cap all the time. while he was sitting on his float with a beer in his had little spunky Mandy snuck behind him and yanked it off. I thought he was going to drown himself. Mandy you will be missed. Love your Aunt Beverly

“ Mandy I brouvht you into this world 41 years ago. I never dreamed I would see you leave this world before me. You fought a hard battle for 4 weeks. But God had other plans for you. He needed another angel to help him. Hug your Dad for me. Until I see you again. I love you. Your Mom
