“ Boo and Family,

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your son Andrew. I cannot even imagine your grief at this time. My heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to you and your family. As you know our family has dealt with the loss of our sister Leah, Dad (Bob) and Mamaw TeddyBear. I hurts so much..but to lose your son...I can't express words that will comfort you now. It takes time to understand this tragedy. Only God has the answer for that. Remember the good things that Andrew brought to your family. I know he will be missed. Godspeed your healing...Love always...Robbin

“ Andrew was a very smart & cool person. I had fun times with him last year in 7th grade. I remeber that him & Cody used to hang real tight last year. I really didnt talk to him very much this year because we weren't on the same team. The times that I really saw him were when I would see him in the hallway or after school. I remember seeing him on friday and hugging him. I remeber playing with him. Im glad that I got the chance to hug him and see him before he passed. It still dosent seem real to me that he is gone. I keep imaging him walking in the school gym doors and everyone hugging him and telling him how much they missed him. Like his is on vacation or something. But i know that he is in a better place and that he will be missed and loved . Rest easy Andrew

“ we all loved you man and you will be missed i really didnt know you much but ive saw you hundreds of times you were a cool guy. We have the same 6th grade team you were in the class next door, and i remember you and a couple of other people always used to get in trouble for the little things. But those days are over here are the new days they bring something new. But for now there going to have to be without you.

“ I wasn't close to you buddy, but I didn't want you to go. Nobody did, I knew you and your dad was passionate about football and you kept your head in the game and I respect that. You could of easily went some where with football, your a beast on the field. You went with a lot of people who love you. If there is a heaven or an after life. Andrew I'll see you there.

“ Mahoney family,
To Andrew I was a little brother to him and he was my big brother. We stood side by side at school. We would laugh, get mad, wrestle and talk about girls. I will truly miss him.

“ Andrew man weve had some AMAZING times! Weve got some memories to. My biggest memorie with you was, when we scrimaged conway you knocked the dudes helmet off, and then when i knocked the dudes helmet off in the game before the state championship, we talked about that for about a month. And of course the state champiopnship. We ALL MISS YOU MAN. Well see you soon.
