

Angela (Angelia) "Angie" Gail Parsons

December 14, 1956 - November 28, 2025

Angela (Angelia) "Angie" Gail Parsons, 68, of PRP, passed away suddenly and unexpectedly on Friday, November 28, 2025, in the wee hours of the morning. Angie was born in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1956. She grew up in PRP and graduated from Pleasure Ridge Park High School in 1974 before entering the workforce. Angie was a member of the former Beth Haven Baptist Church. Angie worked 30-plus years at various Louisville McDonald's having left there as a manager. For a few short years, she pursued supply chain work for a couple of companies. Angie then joined the team at Cox's Smoker's Outlet from where she retired in September 2022 after 15 years of service providing inventory control at most all the Cox's stores.

Angie had a soft spot for her furry friends, treating each like the valuable family member they were. Among her favorites were Smokey (cat), Patches (a Dalmatian) and Fuzzy (aka Brown Dog) and a poodle she cared for after her dear friend, Frank, passed away.

Everyone who knew Angie experienced her generosity and had a keen awareness of how much she liked to shop, visit thrift stores, and give surprises to those in her circle. Angie was certain she knew just what each person needed, would buy those items, and give or re-gift them to that person. After retirement, she thoroughly enjoyed taking lunch to her friends at Cox's, referring to the stores by the number just like everyone knew where that particular store was located. Angie enjoyed texting, playing video games, watching old TV shows, working in the yard, planting flowers, going to new places, eating out with her sister, and spending time with Jax and Fox. Angie was preceded in death by her parents, Thelma Caudill York (1997), and A.C. York (2000), her brother, Charles Wayne York (2022), both sets of grandparents as well as several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Angie is survived by her sister, Paula York Limato (Paul), niece, Rebekah Tessitore (Vincent), and nephew, Jamie Limato (Jessica); great nieces and nephews, Vellani, Stella, Tyson, Hudson, Addison, and Elleson as well as one aunt, Freda Walker and many cousins.

Owen Funeral Home on Dixie Highway is supporting the family.

Her Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, April 11, 2026 at Evergreen Funeral Home Chapel, 4623 Preston Highway, with interment to follow. A light lunch to follow at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Angie's memory to the American Cancer Society <https://www.cancer.org/> or to the Kentucky Humane Society <https://www.kyhumane.org/>

“ Russell Gibson, Doug Underwood and me Diane Wedding Gibson just today learned of Angie’s passing. We all met at McDonald’s in the 70s Russell, Doug and Angie were like the three musketeers all three hanging out together She was the go between for my husband to be and me. Because of her Russell got the courage to ask me out and because of her I would say yes. Thanks to her that first date led to a marriage of 47 years , two children and 5 grandchildren Although we have not seen her for quite awhile her passing has still created a loss for us. May God continue healing your hearts. Diane
