“ What a wonderful person Ann was. First I called her neighbor and she was the best I ever had. Then, I called her friend and did so even after I left Louisville. She was such a pleasure to be around and share stories with. I will truly miss her and my heart goes out to all her other friends and her family that she loved more than anything else in the world. Goodbye dear friend.

I was a neighbor of Ann for about 16 years. She was a wonderful friend. When I divorced and moved away, I lost contact with her. I thought of her often. She was a wonderful cook. I'm sure she will be missed by so many family members and friends. she was such a great person. Rest in peace, Ann.

“ Ann was truly a Southern lady whose love & hospitality made you feel you were special. When you visited, you were family and felt at home. I cherish my summers and the memories made with Ann, Clark and my cousins. With tears of sadness, I prayed for you all. My heart is full of love and sympathy for my Kentucky family. Judy

“ Momma, I am not sure I can live without out. I just don’t know how. I am trying to be brave but you are the person I went to when I felt scared. I hope you are happy and loving on Daddy. Thank you for trying so hard this last year to fight and give us more time. You are the best Momma and I thank you for all you sacrificed for all us. Forever your daughter in life and in death. All my love, Lee
