

Anna Pearl (Compton) Cox

December 10, 2008

Anna Pearl (Compton) Cox 83, of Louisville passed away Wednesday December 10, 2008 at Golden Living Center Camelot. She was a retired bus driver for the Jefferson County Public Schools with over 25 years of service. A member of St. Polycarp Catholic Church and a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Jim Beam bottle club, and VFW Auxiliary. She is preceded in death by her husband Estill Cox Jr. and son Daniel Lee Cox. Survivors include her children Patricia L. Henry, Ronald Eugene Cox, and Deborah Lynn Wilson; 7 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. Her funeral will be 10am Saturday at Owen Funeral Home 5317 Dixie Hwy. Burial in Resthaven Cemetery. Visitation Friday 3-8pm. Online condolences to www.owenfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

DV

“ I am sorry I heard too late to visit the funeral home. I am the Worthy Matron of Brilliant Star #153. My mother and Anna were active members at the same time. I also met Anna when I was secretary at Willoughby School and she was a bus driver. You are in my prayers.

Doris Vincent - June 28, 2018 at 04:01 PM

LP

“ Sorry about your loss and hope that you are doing ok. We all have you in our thoughts.

Sincerely,
Leslie Preston

Leslie Preston - June 28, 2018 at 04:01 PM