“ Praying that you find peace and comfort thru knowing God's love.

"In my distress i screamed to the Lord for his help. And he heard me from heaven; my cry reached his ears." Psalm 18:6.

Hold on to your faith that God will heal all hurt for the ones that are hurting.

Aunt Ann is now receiving the joys of heaven. Now spend time in sharing stories of her life. Show others how grateful you are of the time God has allowed for her to be in your life.

Ray, Kathy, James (family)...Know that we will continue to pray for you during the coming days. Lean into God for strength. Know that you are loved.

Love, Steve & Frances..(family from Nashville)
