“ The kindest, most soft spoken man since his father, this man will be remembered by so many & missed by all of them. He took care of his wife through years of dementia. He owned businesses & put his employees first, closing them due to burglaries in Louisville. He was the best mechanic, as many will affirm, & could still discuss the issues with cars at 94 years of age. He loved his children, grandchildren, great grand children, nephew, & nieces, & all his family. He loved animals, country music, Cracker Barrel, car shows, & just being with family & friends. I know of no one who ever had anything bad to say about my beloved uncle.

Kevin, I am so sorry to hear about your Dad. He led a good long life. I didn't know him, but from what I read he sounds like someone I would have loved to know. If he was anything like you then I know he was a good man. He also sounds like he was a hard worker, that enjoyed what he done. Your Dad sounds like a man who loved his family and took care of them along the way. Kevin I am so sorry for your loss. If you need anything you know where we are. Love you always.
