“ I am so sorry for the loss of this loved one. We had a lot of good memories. Joe and Artie are with our Savior and are not suffering any more. It will be hard giving him up but you know he is in a much better place.

“ To Joyce Potts and sons, I have just lost a great friend. I had many wonderful years with Artie and his Mother, Ethel. Artie and I grew up together in old Louisville, we both attended Cochran Elem. School and Third Avenue Baptist Church. My Mother Tommie and his Mother Ethel were good friends. We all had many good years of friendship.
