“ My heart is sad today as I heard the news of Arthurs passing. He was kind and gentle and so very loving to his family as well as friends and neighbors like me. I loved going to the basement and seeing his trains and William has his 2 piece Train that Arthur made for him when he was born on his shelf in his bedroom.....23yrs later. We can all be comforted knowing that he is in Heaven and whole again. Blessings to you Wanda, Laura and Art love you and praying you will find comfort and peace at this sad time. Love ya, Penny

“ My sincere condolences to Wanda and the entire Robb family. I will be out of town Friday and Saturday and regret that I will not be able to pay my respects in person. Just know that I regarded Art as a dear friend. We shared many good times, many smiles, and many laughs with our trolley club. Art, you will be missed, but I know your name will be repeated many times at our future club meetings. So long for now, my friend.
