“ My heart is breaking from losing my dearest friend. She left me a voicemail and I'll never delete it. Can't believe our Geri is gone. I know the loss is devastating for the loves of her life, Ang, & "J" as she loved to call you. She loved her grandkids sooo much if she could have overcome this horrible disease she would have, just to see you faces again. My love is there for the whole family. Please call on me if I can help in any way. There were only two people that called me "Syvie June" my aunt and my beloved Geri.

“ Jason and Angie, your mom and I shared a special bond as we were privileged to witness our children exchange their vows 20 years ago and then bless us with two beautiful grandsons. Geri and I played games and chatted on our iPads almost every day. I already miss our morning contacts. I can't bring myself to delete our unfinished games just yet. Geri was a beautiful soul, and I will miss her terribly. I find peace knowing she's with family and friends who have also earned their heavenly wings. Rest In Peace, Geri, till we meet again. Love, Debbie and Nick (Granny & Papaw).

“ Dear Angie and Family,
What a heart wrenching loss..
Geri and I met and became friends when we worked at Bacon's. After talking a few minutes, I discovered that she and my sister-in-law were also friends.
She was easy to love, with her kindness and wonderful sense of humor.
Praying you and the family will feel God's loving support as you begin to adjust to the tomorrows, without her and remembering all the fun times your family shared.
She was a dear soul, and I'll miss her for now, but I know we'll meet again.
She's healed and rejoicing with Jesus and all her dear family and friends that have gone before her.
Keeping you in my heart and prayers.
Love and hugs,
Nancy Chancey

“ I told Geri that she was the heart of our WHS Class of '66. She shared her love and concern with each of us in her unique way. Even before high school our families were joined by the respect and honor of our mothers. Your mother, grandmother, sister, friend will be with you always, reminding and cheering you. May God bless your hearts with His great gift of peace that passes understanding. Our hearts hurt with you.

Words cannot express how my heart feels..Geri was my true friend...I miss knowing that I cannot call her to see how she was doing or tell her about things that was going on in my life . I loved hearing her tell about her children and Grand Children and the traveling to watch her Grand Daughter play ball...She was always up lifting and positive...I will cherish all the great times we had growing up in Kentucky and going to High /school together...Oh the fun and laughs we had on our "Girls Trip".We had so many trips planned,but my husband got sick and I could not leave him...Now she is gone and I hear our other friend that went on the trip with us has had a bad stroke and cannot travel.....How sad all of this makes my heart..Thank God for all, my precious memories of Geri now and times long ago and will linger in my heart forever..I will be praying for the family and want you to know what a treasure you had in Geri...I pray that some way i can make it to her memorial service when this virus is over....I will see you again my Precious Friend and you will live in my heart forever and always..My love goes with you..GOD Bless her Family....

“ The news of Geri's death brought so much sadness to me. I met her several years ago at a Vietnam veteran's reunion where her husband and my husband had served in The Big Red One. We became close friends and communicated through the years by cards, calls, letters, and texts. Geri was such a lovely lady and I will miss her sweet and caring spirit. May God bless all the family and her precious grandchildren in their time of sorrow. Hugs and Prayers to ALL from the Eggles in Michigan.
