“ Aunt Tootie, you were more amazing than I ever imagined. I learned more about you the day you were laid to rest. You lived your life to the fullest and loved with every part of your heart and soul. I'll never forget when you asked me one Christmas what was the matter. And I told you all she asked for was a bicycle from her Daddy. To no surprise he said he had it then come Christmas he didn't. You handed me the money and said go get that baby a bike. Your heart was as big as the world. I love you Aunt tootie fly high and dance with the Angels.
