“ I am so saddened to learn about the death of this dear, sweet ,beautiful woman, We shared a first name and a love for our profession. Being around her always lifted my spirit. Her smile could light up a room. She exuded love, for her students, family , co-workers and friends. We are all blessed for having known her. Every teacher who retired from JCTMS was honored to receive one of her wonderful poems. I recall telling her that she could not retire until she wrote mine. She retired before me, but provided my poem anyway. It still holds a prominent place on my office wall. My sympathy goes out to her family. Todd, I was so honored that she trusted me to teach her first born. May God wrap His loving arms around all of you.
Love and prayers,
