“ We belong to Incarnation, and will miss seeing Barbie's smiling face. Barbie was always such a pleasure to be around, and she loved having fun. She was such a big help to us with a comedy fashion show that we put on for the youth group, as well as our talent shows at church. Our prayers go out to her family and friends for strength and peace during this difficult time. Another Angel called home.

“ Barbara always had a great sense of humor and a loving generous heart. When I was little, the church would host fun night and Barbie would dress up as a clown or do some kind of cute skit. My favorite skit was when she dressed up as Shirley Temple and lip sync to "Good Ship Lollypop". She was like a second mom to me and my twin brother. Deanna, you are like a sister to me. I will miss Barbie, dearly. Yours truly, Duc Nguyen

“ Our children were in the same class from kindergarten through 8th grade. I never saw Barbie without a smile on her face. She was a great Mom and a wonderful person. Her heart was as beautiful as her face. May she rest in peace. Deanna, your Mom was a lovely person and I feel privileged to have known her. Linda Cook Salazar

A true and good friend is a rare gift to be treasured. Anyone who was fortunate to have Barbara in their life was blessed. She was one of those incredibly rare friends that everyone hopes for, but seldom finds. She was loyal, generous, and forgiving.

She loved people because she recognized the good in them. Love of her friends and family defined her life.

Her unselfish acts of love endeared her to many. Taking the very young excited daughter of a friend to appear on TBarV Ranch TV with Randy and Cactus when the friend was unable and also taking that same friend's small children on a magical adventure of trick or treating. Or being instrumental in helping another friend to get a marriage annulment after many years of disappointments, and keeping vigil at that same lifelong friend's death bed, while whispering encouraging words of heaven's promises.

There are so many other stories of her generosity and kindness, I hope others will share here. The funny ones too!

Barbara or Barbie —

Always the story teller! She never failed to entertain her family and friends with her hilarious escapades.

Everyone who knew her couldn't help but enjoy her warmth, friendly nature, her sensitivity, and her wonderful sense of humor. People were naturally drawn to her outgoing personality.

Faced with many health challenges later in life she always managed to put on a happy face. She cheerfully celebrated her last few days of life with her loving family, close friends and her beloved cats. She courageously welcomed eternity.

She had and loved many many dear friends. She was an amazing example of giving of oneself through time, talent and treasure. She was the treasure. A gift to ufs all. She will dearly be missed.
