

Barbara J. (Clark) "Mocha" Peace

June 30, 1941 - February 4, 2025

Barbara J. Peace, 83, of Louisville passed away peacefully on Tuesday, February 4, 2025.

Barbara was born June 30, 1941 in Louisville to Margaret and Francis Clark and was preceded in death by her brother, Raymond Clark Jr., and her beloved husband, Silas L. Peace, "Poppy".

She was a graduate of Loretto High School and pursued her lifelong love of art as a talented member of the Louisville Miniature Club. Barbara had an artistic genius gift. She hand-made porcelain dolls and painted realistic pictures. Her greatest achievement was building and decorating miniature doll houses with "Poppy". They won a multitude of blue ribbons from state fairs and were featured in newspapers and magazines. Everything she touched she made beautiful. "Mocha", to her grandchildren and many others, was kind, loving, and was always there when needed. Mocha was loved dearly and will be greatly missed.

Survivors include her sister, Betty Taylor and her sister-in-law, Betty Clark. Daughters; Michelle UHL, (Neil), Robin Atzinger (Matthew), and Angela Willhite (Mike).
