“ I was shocked and saddened to see this. I knew Barbara when she first met Jim (the love of her life). What a fun couple to hang with. We sure had fun back in our wild and crazy days. Rest in Peace Barbara. Until we meet again Janet

“ So many memories, my first were her being known to me as Aunt Bobby. Growing up behind Grandma and Grandpa and remembering Aunt Bobby babysitting for me and my 4 sisters. She was always so silly and funny. She became Barbara (Barb) to me when we were a lot older but I will always remember her as Aunt Bobby. My memory of her is when Mom passed away and as she was leaving she blew me a kiss and I blew one back to her. ❤️ 🌹

My heartfelt condolences for the loss of such a wonderful person. I never got to meet Barb but felt as if I knew her through the stories Jim would share with me. I know she was loved and adored and lived a full life. Cherish the memories made and continue to make more so when you meet again you can share with her.
