Belinda was a woman who brought love, laughter, and joy to everyone around her. She was known for her big hugs, wet kisses, and the special way she made people feel loved. She had a heart full of happiness and found joy in the simple things, from her love of Snoopy and collecting snow globes to cheering on the University of Kentucky and spending time bowling. Belinda loved to sing karaoke, and one of her favorite songs was “What a Friend I Have in Jesus,” a song that brought her comfort and reflected the joy she carried in her heart.

She truly loved her job at Kentucky Kingdom, where she enjoyed seeing the excitement of the rides and the happiness they brought to others. Above all else, Belinda cherished her family. They were the greatest joy in her life, and she will always be remembered for the love, kindness, and happiness she shared with those who knew and loved her.
