Though I did not know Ben, I know the Mauldin Family since Kathy was a little girl. My heart breaks for all of your sorrow. “ Sandy, Dwayne & Cory,
My heart breaks for you. I know that these few days will be the worst, but the aching will never leave. I hope that you find peace in your memories and love for Ben that will give you the strength to go on. I know that Walt & Sue were there to meet him and I have no doubt that they will be watching over you. Keep your loved ones alive in your thoughts, words and deeds and they will never leave you. You will see your dear son again.

“ Our many thoughts and prayers go out to your family in the loss of such a wonderful person. Ben was a pleasure to be around and work with here at Key Oil Company. We will always remember his trips to the front office to check out the candy bowl, and the cookouts and Christmas parties...this past year in particular is a memory we are fond of. Ben was telling us about his inspiration and desire to become a culinary chef, and how he loved to cook. He was so very proud of his dish this past Christmas that he brought into work, and we all loved it.
Ben was a thoughtful and caring individual and will truly be missed.

“ Sandy,Dwayne and Corey,no words can express the pain that you are in right now but remember the funny, goofy Ben that you loved and lived with everyday. Ben chose to live his life to the fullest and we watched him change and grow into a young man. Always keep those loving memories in your heart to make you smile. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
