“ My husband and I would like to convey our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of your beloved Betty Jane. We wanted to share with you something that brought us comfort at a similar time in our lives. John 11:14-44 shows us a wonderful example of what is to come, the resurrection, when Jesus resurrected Lazarus, here on earth, before the very eyes of those he loved. We can only imagine the tears of joy, when we too, are reunited with our dear loved ones again. (John 5:28,29) Betty Jane will surely be missed by those who's lives she touched, remember the experiences you shared together and learn from them, hold them dear to your hearts and cherish them. May you find comfort from your own personal copy of the scriptures and those who surround you at this very difficult time. Our sincere condolences to all of you who knew and loved her. Take Care.

“ A ship sails and I stand watching till she fades on the horizon and someone at my side says ..”She is gone.”

Gone where? Gone from my sight, that is all. She is just as great and as real as when I saw her.

The diminished size, the total loss of sight is in me, not in her, ... and just at the moment when someone at my side says “she is gone”, there are others who are watching her coming, and other voices take up a glad shout ..”There she comes!”

My deepest sympathies come to you today. You did not know me, but I had the very great pleasure of knowing Betty and Jerry, and I join you as you mourn this loss.

May these words bring you comfort.

Sincere Condolences,

Jan Rhoades
