“Ms. Ford was my second mother. I grew up staying at the house many weekends. Betty was the strongest most hard working woman I’ve ever known. She loved working in her yard. It was her sanctuary. When I was a young teen she would come to our house and go out to the barn and take all our horse manure for her yard. I have too many memories to list. Ms. Betty Ford was iconic. My teenage girls loved her. They called her a “skinny legend”. Lol. I’ll love you always.
