“ My beautiful mother, as I write this my heart is shattered and my tears are flowing. Life here will never, ever be the same. I was so proud to call you my mother. You were so compassionate, loving and giving. You bore us, nurtured us and raised us to be the people we are and we know how proud of us you were as well. I will miss your sweet face, your witty sense of humor, our daily phone calls and all the fun times we spent together. I will carry you in my heart and hold you close until God grants me the extraordinary opportunity to be graced by your presence and hold you in my arms again! Rest easy now you beautiful angel!!!!!!

“ *She was a great nurse and a greater friend. I will miss her very much.
Beau will miss her too. He used to love to say when we out together, "This is my sister Betty and this is my other sister Betty"
Wish we could be there with you.*
