“ Barry and I both send our thoughts and prayers out to the entire Bowden family in the loss of your father Bill. What a joy to know that he is in the presence of the Lord, praising and worshipping his Savior, free from the pain of this life. May you cherish all the wonderful memories you have of him from this life and look forward to seeing him again in the next. God be with all of you and know your church family is praying for you and there for you.

“ Our precious Bowden family, Ormsby Heights family and friends, Words cannot express the deep, deep ache in our hearts at the loss of Bill from this earth. The void is immense and hurts. The only joy we find is in hearing him in our memories say he was ready to go home even back in 2013 and many times before. Know that you are on our hearts and in our prayers especially as you journey through this grief. Wish we could be there to hug your necks and kiss your cheeks. We love you.
