“ *To Billy's family
My deepest sympathy to you I work for Helping Hands and sat with Billy several times during the past few weeks I could tell he was loved by his family his friends and had a great attitude He thought more about the other person He was always saying watch the station you want on TV Adjust the air-conditioner the way you want it The last day or two I worked he was saying goodbye to everyone I asked if he was ready and he said oh yes I hope that gives you comfort We grieve but not like those with no help Blessings.*

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Recently I lost my dear mother, and found great comfort in the Holy Bible, like at Isaiah 25 verse 8 - "The Sovereign Lord will swallow up death forever, and wipe away the tears from all faces." Also at Revelation 21 verse 4 we find the promise that God will remove both pain and death. For more comfort, I turn to the website at: www.jw.org (Search: Comfort)
