“ I'm sad cause I didn't know u were dying & u told mom not to tell me u had cancer. I appreciate all u have done for me & my mom. U married mom when I was going in 8th grade & u taught me to drive! U always helped out in times of need, but u never asked for anything. U let me & my son stay at your house til I got my apt & u helped me & mom that summer in 2017 during hard times. Just wish I could of helped u out before u died. But glad your not in any pain & your resting in peace with your Mom , Killer, & Tigger, & Sophie (my dog) that u said was running with Killer in doggie heaven 🙏🕊️
