“ This is one of the hardest things for me to do for there is not enough kind words to say about this man. I am blessed and honored to say that he was a father figure to me. Having grown up with out a father, Bob stepped up even before he has his own children to try and fulfill that void in my life. I could always count on him to be there for me by doing a number of little things with and for me. In my young years, he took me Trick r Treating, to the fair, car races, inviting me to stay with them during summer school breaks. As I grew up, I could still count on him. He was there when I needed help with my mother, supporting me during her illness and being that shoulder to lean on when she passed. He helped me do home repairs, took me to Dr.'s and out patient surgery when I needed it. Sharing his home and family with me during Holidays when I was alone. These are just a few things. I could list more, but as you can see, he was truly a father figure, because those acts of unselfish kindness is a show of unconditional love and support that a parent gives to a child. He was such a loving and caring man that words just cannot express. He chose a partner in life that had a heart just as loving as his. Joyce and he was a true pairing of loving souls that truly deserved each other. He fathered two wonderful children and as his family expanded with grandchildren he always had enough love to go around. I am so blessed to have had this man in my life and with his passing, my heart is breaking for his loss is hard to bare. I gain strength in knowing that this man was a true child of God and he is with his Creator in Heaven. Till we see each other again, RIP Uncle Bob. I will always love you and never forget all that you have done for me.

“ Bob was such a special guy! Ed and I both loved him and appreciated his friendship. Just such a considerate and loving man. Always remember him "protecting" Ed when we went to see the "musical", and from that time forward the howling greeting he always gave even when feeling at his worst! He's shouting it out now! Love you, Bob, and Joyce. May God watch over and give comfort to you, Traci, Rob, and all the family!!

“ Bob was such a great man, truly admired by many, always with a smile on his face which made my heart smile. During & after my parents were divorced, Bob came by occasionally, taking me for rides w/him on his motorcycle, taking me to figure 8 races @ the Sportsdrome & Ky Fairgrounds. He seemed at the time, like an older brother & fill-in Dad. Everyone loved Bob, including myself. He was a special man whom is an example that we should all follow ! We Love You, Bob !
