“ It is with such a sad heart that I am writing this. I knew Bradley from his many visits to the school library over the years that he attended Western High School. He would often come to the library just to visit and hang out. Bradly was so funny and had such a unique sense of humor; he always had his friends, as well as many others (including me), laughing. He will be missed by all. My deepest condolences to his whole family and all that loved him.
