“ I wish there was something I could say or do to make all of this go away. I've felt like the entire thing has been a terrible nightmare. You are too good, too generous, too loving, and way too young to be taken so soon. You will be forever missed, my friend. Rest in Peace Brandon.

“ I could not be more thankful for the time Brandon and I had together. We met at Johnson while running cross country and he always found a way to make practices fun. We ended up getting super close. We'd stay up late on the phone, or skype each other almost every single night. We went to Valley View together and would stay after church on Wednesday nights just so we could talk and play basketball. I have so many special memories of Brandon and I'm so thankful I got to see a side of Brandon that not a lot of people got to. He was a beautiful person.. So caring, and always there for you no matter the situation. We all are grieving and miss you so much bmuudd. No one will ever be able to replace you or those big dimples. Prayers for the family and friends.. I wish I could make the pain go away, but His plan is perfect. <3

“ Beth, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. We have watched our boys grow up into young men and worried about them so often. Words cannot explain how much my heart aches for all of you. He was loved by so many of their peers. His smile was contagious. May God lay his healing hands on you and the rest of his family.
