“ Our hearts are broken for you all. We met in 1993 and you all welcomed us as neighbors right away. Times spent together have always been filled with love & much fun. I've known 3 strong women in my life, one raised me, one puts up with me, & Sue was the shining light for Pat & her family. Much love to you all.

“ Patrick, Brittany and Tim, Nathan and Michelle, I am so sorry to her about Brenda she was a joy.

I have only know your wife and mother for a few short 9 years. I came to know Brenda when my work group moved under her director, she made me feel welcomed. Our mornings would start and by 9:00 am one of us would quickly send the other a message "I Need Coffee" and we quickly meet at the door and walk (or drive if too cold) to our local Starbucks. Talking all the way and not about work but family! Those conversations were great she would tell me about the new happenings with you all, her greatly loved kids, wedding pans, Briley's dress, oh and Kash what he was up too and how he was growing so quickly. We talked about Nathan's move to Chicago and one day we would plan a drive up and shop the Mag Mile and enjoy Christmas in the city. My son was also in Chicago so we would plan on a few days for our trip.

Not too long after our walks changed we talked about doctors, treatments, and of course the kids. How she was planning on spending quality time away from work with her family and grandchildren that she so loved dearly. She shared pictures and memories of your Hawaiian trip, Derby Dinner Playhouse shows and that Birthday Parade was just wonderful. You were all a blessing to her. Her memory will stay with me forever. Brenda rest in the arms of angels now.

I wish you all nothing but comfort and strength.
