“ My momma, the woman who gave me life, took care of me for 43 years and never stopped believing in me. She was my best friend from the day she gave birth to me, we always swore that the drs forgot to cut the cord, I kinda wish that were true because then I would still be with her. I will never forget any memory of her because every bit of her is embedded in my heart and mind. Momma, I love and miss you terribly
