“ To my wonderful nephew. My sorrow at your passing is without bounds. Shirley and your uncle Larry love you and we will always have you in our heart and our memories of You will sustain us till we can be with you again. Our only comfort is that you will be in the loving arms of your sister Olivia, your grandparents, aunt Susie, uncle Harry and all the Others who loved you and thought so much of you and your lovely personality. Our Only comfort is that hopefully someday we will be reunited with you. All our love will be yours forever
