“ As a mom of a 14 yr old classmate of Briana's, I want to extend my deepest sympathy to her family. This one hits close to home. No words can relieve the pain and loss but hope you find some comfort knowing people you don't even know share in your sadness and hope something positive is learned from this tragedy. My son came home yesterday with her name in purple on his arms and will join others wearing purple tomorrow to celebrate your cherished loved one.
