

Brooks Keller Gulley

January 6, 2025 - February 6, 2026

On February 6, 2026, Brooks Keller Gulley, left the arms of his mother and father and entered into the arms of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He was born in Louisville, Kentucky on January 6, 2025, at Norton Children's Hospital. Though his heart failed, God is now the strength of his heart and portion forever.

His time on this earth was far too short, but he was a fighter from the very beginning. From his first breath, he showed strength, resilience, and a quiet bravery that touched everyone who knew him. A true mama's boy, he found comfort in her love and in the simple joys of life—playing with his hands, listening to music, and having stories read to him. He was a happy baby with a beautiful smile that could light up a room, bringing joy to everyone around him. He knew nothing but love in his life, as he was constantly surrounded by it, wrapped in the arms and hearts of those who adored him. His life, though brief, was meaningful, beautiful, and deeply loved.

Brooks is lovingly remembered by his parents, Haley and Jaxson Gulley; siblings, Magnolia and Barrett Gulley; grandparents, Danny Gulley (Granddad), Melisa Gulley (Granny), Doug Williams (Gramps), and Cathy Williams (Gramma); uncles, Hayden Williams, Hudson Williams, Kyle Hampton (Megan), and Mitchell Ashworth (Anna); aunts, Mary Williams and Holly Williams; cousins, Tommy and Lily Williams; and a host of other family members and friends.

Brooks bravely fought Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome throughout his life, showing strength far beyond his years. Surrounded by constant love and care, his courage and spirit touched everyone who knew him. The family would like to recognize the staff in the CICU of Norton Children's Hospital for their unwavering support and love throughout all 13 months of his life.

In remembrance of National Heart Day, the family asks that you wear red in honor of Brooks.

His funeral services will be held at Kenwood Baptist Church at Victory Memorial, 3805 Southern Pkwy. The visitation will be on Friday, February 13, 2026, from 12:00-8:00PM. The funeral service will be the following day, starting at 11:00 AM. There will be a private burial at a later date.
