“ Phyllis, We are sorry we can't come to the funeral but we are thinking of you & the family. Sorry to hear he had been sick so long and you take care of yourself. We love you and was talking about the time we went on the cruise together and how much fun we ha.

I will call you one day and we can talk. I had planned on riding down with Paul but I have been swamped with this work and can't do much.

*Love,
