“ Carl was a very good man. He and my mother were friends for several years. He always helped her with Doctor appointments and was a good companion. My sons , brother Danny and I are very sad to hear of his passing. We will meet again in heaven.

“ P.S. What I forgot to add....- I'll not soon forget seeing br. Carl, 90+ years young, at the Shively church building parking lot before one of our services, calmly sitting on and showing off his big blue...motorcycle trike !!! -- RP

“ Brother Carl was quickly and lovingly accepted the last couple of years as a fellow member of our family known as the Shively church of Christ. He was such a humble man and Christian, that I'm not sure he knew how much he was loved and appreciated...and now so sorely missed. -- Randy Pickup

“ I knew Carl at the Ralph Avenue Church of Christ where he was a very active member.
He was a very sweet, friendly "greeter" to make you feel welcome.
I will be looking to see Carl in heaven.

“ *Carl was a vital part of the former Ralph Avenue Church of Christ.
He was a sweet man and I was shocked to learn of his passing.*
