“ Words are hard to find in times like these, I'm still kind of stunned and my heart is broken. You are loved by so many and you've touched so many people's lives. You deserved so much more than life dealt you and I wish you could have seen what others saw in you. Your struggles on earth are over and your legacy remains in the memories you left with all of those that loved you! Rest in heaven and live your days rocking out up there! Until we meet again...

“ I spent some years with you man I can't thank you enough for being there for me at times especially with my mom going down hill and you help taking care of her. And being there for Malachai and Khloie. They love you so much. No matter the past you had a heart of gold and I love ya dearly. You definitely will always have a part in my heart. I would have been there if you would have reached out. I'm praying for your girls and family. I love them all still. They was a special part of my life as well. Xo rest in peace man.

It's been a while since he's passed, I just haven't been able to build up the strength to write all of this but I'm ready now. Carl was the only thing i had close to a father, I remember going to all these places with him. I remember when I had my 13th birthday party and I broke my ankle he carried me out even though his arm was messed up. Then my friend had no ride to get home so we drove her to where her step dad was and since there was barely any room in the car we had Carl in the trunk of the Kia. I remember every other weekend he would get me and Danny and it was always Carl, Danny, Bubby, Cortney, and me. He was always there for us and I miss him so much, I just know he's in a better place now and he's happy.
