“ To Carol's family, my heartfelt condolences to you all for your loss of a beautiful soul. You have gone through a great time of trial during her illness, but her spirit and abundant faith kept you going. My hope is that Carol is making someone laugh in heaven now. Especially now during the celebration of our Lord Jesus Christ's arrival here on Earth, I hope you all find peace with Him.

“ Dear Aunt Tek, Terry, Buddy and families:

This time has got to be so difficult for you all simply because you have lost the best - the best daughter, sister, wife and mother anyone could ever have. Carol Ann was such a presence with her beautiful smile and infectious laugh. She was as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. We will all miss her terribly but please take this time to celebrate her life, because Carol Ann was so full of life. She was simply a joy. I'm sure you have tons of wonderful memories of your life with Carol. I pray those memories are a source of some comfort for all of you. Please know you all have been in my thoughts and prayers.
