“ Tricia, Even though we have lost contact over the years, I have not stopped thinking of you and wishing we could get together. I pass your parents' house often and think of your mom, especially. The tears just flowed when I saw her lovely picture and read of her passing. Your parents were always so good to me when I stayed over at your house. And your mom was a lot of fun. I always thought she acted young. She was a great mom to you guys, and you all shared a lot of love. I can't come over, as I am out of town, but my thoughts and prayers and love are with you.
