

Catharine (Kitty) Hammons Smith- Gividen

August 1, 1939 - January 24, 2023

Catharine (Kitty) Hammons Smith-Gividen, 83, passed away Tuesday, January 24, 2023.

Catharine attended Howard High School in Nashville, TN and later earned an associate degree in computer science from Sullivan College in Louisville, KY. She was a member of St. Paul Church, Louisville Miniature Club, Mary Queen of Peace craft club and was a lifetime member and chaplain of the Marine Corp League Auxiliary.

Hobbies through her lifetime were Nascar Racing, Louisville Cardinals, Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds, the beach especially Daytona Beach Shores, miniature doll houses, crosswords and jigsaw puzzles. She loved to travel – at home and abroad (Japan, Germany, Austria and Paris France). She was preceded in death by her parents, Virgil and Dorothy Ford Hammons, husband of nearly 30 years, David Tigert Smith Sr. and later husband of 14 years, Bill Gividen. Also preceding her in death are her brothers, Stephen Virgil Hammons, Milton Lee Hammons, Donald John Hammons and Ronald Joseph Hammons.

Catharine is survived by her children, Debra Smith, Michael Smith, Bill Smith, and David Smith.

Her services will be at a later date at Woodfin Funeral Chapels, 203 N. Lowry St. Smyrna TN. 37167. Burial will follow at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Nashville TN.

Tribute Wall

JG

“ Catharine wasn't just a neighbor to us, she was family. I'm so sorry of just now hearing of her passing. I would text or chat with her periodically, and she was a class act! I will miss our conversations and the laughs we had. Rest now sweet lady! Jenni Gaus

jenni Gaus - June 20, 2023 at 07:32 PM

PJ

“ I'm so sadden to hear that our aunt kitty has passed away. She was such a caring and special lady to us Hammons girls. What a kind and caring heart she had. Prayers to her 🙏 kids (Denbie, Mike, Dave, and Beaver) and their families too. She will be greatly missed 😞

Patsy Johnson - January 25, 2023 at 08:47 PM