“ I worked with Cathy on 6 South and can still hear her say: it's Friday wear your R.E.D. shirt for those deployed and "what's Jay gotta say" in the morning. She was always caring and compassionate for her patients and co-workers. But most of all was her talking about the love for her family and kids!

“ I had the pleasure of working with Cathy on 6 South glad to see her there on the days I had to work! One of the best nurses I ever worked with always positive attitude, always smiling & managing to crack jokes some of her favorite lines were ,we are living the dream up in here & fake it till you make it! She had CPR down to a Tee she was very good at doing the compressions! If there was ever a perfect example of never giving up in life it was her! I retired in May & she made me this wonderful plaque which I will cherish forever! She had so many talents, gardening, crafting & nursing to name a few! So sorry for your loss , she will be missed by many!

“ I had recently got close to Cathy in the past couple months and we would constantly send each other messages of us singing random songs throughout the work day. She really had a big heart and an amazing personality. She really knew how to brighten someone's day. I will miss her dearly.

“ I had the privilege of meeting Cathy while working with Natural Wonders DC. We became so close, Cathy was in the delivery room when I gave birth to my first son, Zane. She was already mother to my favorite little girl and she mothered with such ease that I thought, I can do this too. Heck, she mothered me at times too. Such a bright spirit! My heart is with all who love her.

I went to church with Cathy years ago. I saw her on Facebook one day about a year ago & thought. I need to call her. So I did and we talked for a long time which was really on because I knew her but I hardly talked to her. She was always sweet, pretty and had a strong personality. She reminded me of someone that could face anything. I am so sorry to hear about her.
