“ When I was 8 years old, my parents, sister and I took our Christmas Holiday to visit my father's family (Romans) in Louisville, Kentucky. We went on the Great Northern Inland Empire line. My Uncle Cecile picked us up at the train station and I remember he had the same soft Southern drawl as my Dad. At 8, my Father (Howard), was my hero... we then went to 6812 Rockhollow Drive, Grandmother's (Melissa Pearl Romans) home. Well guess what I saw next? Uncle's Shelby Mustang, mint, beautiful!! He gave my Sister, and me a ride and, used riding horses and feeling their strength and power beneath you I equate the same to that ride! Uncle Cecile, thank you for that wonderful gift and memory. I love you. We will all be together soon. Tara, Brad, and Neal, my prayers are with you. Clele Cecile Romans
