“ I won't forget the good times that will be remembered in the way you were when we were kids. When life was care free before we had to pay bills and life just happened. Sorry for our last words spoken . You left to soon but time waits for no one. Your memory is timeless however. A part of you is still with me I can still here the way you laugh and remember the looks you give with out saying a word we always could communicate like that. Now you rest today and be at peace with all that was harsh in in this world your on to bigger things and a different set of plans. I know you will be watching down on 3 boys who needs a guardian angel now more than ever. Make sure to give signs every once in a while like papaw did when you were here. It will be nice for your friends family n children to know your around because we love you and miss you very much.
