“ Charlie,

You will be greatly missed, your sense of humor, your willingness to give, your love for family and friends, you became part of our family as a child, and it didn't matter where your travels took you, you always came home. You may have had the title of brother-in-law but you will always be much, much more to us.

As we feel loss at losing you, we carry that hole in our hearts and lives that you left behind. But we have peace in knowing that heaven is being graced with your presence as God and his angels are rejoicing as you take your heavenly place to help watch over us. You will always be loved and never forgotten.. To my baby sister Peggy and her son Justin, remember the good times, and what he gave to your lives and as the days turn into months and months into years your memories and love of Charlie will continue to help you through your journey called life.
