

Charles Jason "C.J." Curnick

January 17, 2016

Jason Charles "C.J." Curnick 35, of Louisville, passed away on Sunday, January 17, 2016, at his home. He was a veteran of the U.S. Marines and was self employed. He mastered the artistry of hardwood flooring, as he took pride in his work. He had a real love of nature, reflected by his canoeing and snow skiing. He loved spending time with family, many friends, and his precious pup, Ginny. He will be sorely missed by all. He is survived by his parents Charles and Alice Curnick, two sisters Amy and Celeste, and two nieces, Lola and Avery. Visitation will be Friday, January 22, from 10 a.m. to Noon at St. Gabriel Catholic Church with a memorial mass following at Noon. Owen Funeral Home-Jeffersontown is in charge of arrangements. Online condolences can be made at www.owenfuneralhome.com.

“ TJ,
We never had a chance to say how much we love our new floors.
You worked so hard and did a fantastic job. We will always cherish and remember you.

“ Alice, Charles, Amy, Celeste,
It is with deep sadness that I extend my sincere condolences on your terrible loss. Even though I wasn't real family, CJ called me "Uncle Doug". That made me feel close not only to him but the entire family. I will miss him too.

“ You will be missed we went to school together and hung out a few times till we lost contact when we both left for the service. You will be missed love you always my brother in arms. God has taken you way to early. What is going on I am losing more friends who served and deployed back home than I have in Iraq and Afganistan
